REMEMBERING OUR LOVED ONES

We will give thanks in our worship services on October 31 and November 1 for those loved ones who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labors. This will be done as we celebrate the Festival of All Saints' Day, a celebration of the unity of the church on earth and those in heaven.

If you have a loved one who has died in Christ since November 3, 2019, and you would like that person remembered on All Saints' weekend, please provide the following information to the church office by no later than Monday, October 26! Call the office at (314) 993-2394 or e-mail Connie Baur at cbaur@immanuelolivette.org.

NEW PHONE DIRECTORY

We have an updated Immanuel phone directory available! They are available for pick up in the Atrium, 1 per family. Please help yourself. If you find any of your information is not correct please give Connie your updated information.

AS CHRISTIANS, WE HAVE DUAL CITIZENSHIP...

In the midst of everything leading up to Election Day, November 3; here is a resource for Christians as they consider their role as citizens of two kingdoms--the spiritual realm and the temporal realm. Interestingly (and assuredly), God is in control and active in both. This little booklet published by Concordia Publishing House, helps deliver "A Simple Explanation of Church and State." Get your free copy at Immanuel Lutheran-Olivette.

BREW IN THE LOU (Virtual this year!)

Don't forget to pick up your Brew in the Lou Passport to help support LESA and financial aid for our Lutheran Schools. It's good for a year and we have them available in the school office for $30 right now!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

No matter how hard we try, we will never completely overcome our selfishness and greed. Even though Scripture tells us that worldly treasures can't provide us with any real security, we don't always distinguish between providing responsibly for our future needs and selfish hoarding. Jesus said, "Watch out! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; a man's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions" (Luke 12:15). What we acquire in this life will at some time be lost; however, what we do for Christ will last forever. Jesus also said, "What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, and yet lose or forfeit his very self?" (Luke 9:25).

THANK YOU!

Immanuel is grateful for everyone who faithfully supports our community food pantries. Thank You!

"Thank You" Margo Loebs for organizing her team of Immanuel Crafters to purchase food pantry donations and using Thrivent money. A total of three car trunk full of donations were delivered! Our Jewish Food Pantry and Concordia Food Bank were delighted to receive so many donations.

The Jewish Food Pantry saw 6500+ customers each month before the crisis. Today, they are seeing 7500+ customers monthly and look for a greater number of customers in the near future. The Concordia Food Bank supports 200 students and their families.

Your food pantry donation, no matter the size, is helping our community in need. Food pantry donations may be left in the red tote at the church entrance or on the Food Pantry table near the church elevators at any time.

And I saw another angel flying in midheaven, and he had everlasting good news to declare as glad tidings to those who dwell
on the earth, and to every nation
and tribe and tongue and people,
saying in a loud voice: "FEAR God and give him glory, because the hour of the judgment by him has arrived, and so worship the One who made the heaven and the earth and sea and fountains of waters."

Rev. 14: 6,7

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace
as a gift through the redemption
that is in Christ Jesus
